LAND SHARK CUSTOM ROAD BIKE

Value: $1,250

Size: Large

John Slawta of Land Shark quickly attracted a cult following because he is an army of one, building each frame one at a time and personally painting each frame afterwards. Even the carbon fiber Wound-Up fork was painted to match the Chris King headset. His bikes are known for their stability, comfort, and turning heads. Only 200 Land Sharks are produced a year, so do not hesitate to bite down on this rare road racer.
